

Want to know more about the new employment legislations and their impact on you?

You are invited to TAFEP's Partners Update on 2 June 2017!

Come and learn about the recent changes to Singapore's employment landscape, including the new Employment Claims Tribunals (ECT) and how it affects you. There are also some new initiatives and programmes introduced recently by TAFEP and our tripartite partners, and we would like to keep you updated, so that you can be prepared to take on the new challenges faced by employers in today's changing work environment.

At this session, we will be launching our new publication, Fair & Progressive Practices at Work, where you'll learn about the key trends and best practices of award winning companies and hear how they have introduced creative programmes to manage workforce issues.

Seats are limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. So hurry, and reserve yours now!
